BROWN ACT: According to the Brown Act, no action may be taken on items not posted on the agenda.

While the 65th Street RAC welcomes and encourages participation in the RAC meetings, it would be appreciated if you would limit your comments to three minutes so that everyone may be heard. Public testimony will be permitted on each agenda items as it is called. Matters under the advisory responsibility of the RAC and not on the posted agenda may be addressed by the general public following completion of regular Agenda items. The RAC may limit testimony on matters not on the Agenda to three minutes per person and not more than fifteen minutes for particular subject. Times shown for each item on the agenda are approximate times only and include the total time approximated for that particular subject.

Reports or memos related to specific items are available by request. Please contact Tim Padden at (916) 440-1399 x 1204 or by email at tpadden@shra.org for information.

Next regular meeting date: Thursday, January 4, 2007
