“Don has a history of proven finance expertise with the Agency,” said SHRA executive director Anne M. Moore. “We are pleased to be able to afford him the opportunity to take on this new level of leadership and fiscal responsibility for the organization.”

Prior to working for the Agency, he was senior internal auditor for The Money Store/First Union Bank. He also served as inventory control auditor at Nissan Motor Acceptance Corporation. Prior to that position, he was an underwriter for American Portfolio Services, Inc.

Mr. Cavier holds the accounting designation of Certified Internal Auditor and is a licensed real estate broker through the California Department of Real Estate.

SHRA (www.shra.org) is a Joint Powers Authority created by the City and County of Sacramento to represent both jurisdictions for affordable housing and community redevelopment needs. The Agency is the leading public developer of affordable housing and oversees residential and commercial revitalization activities in 14 redevelopment areas throughout the City and County. SHRA has a FY 2007 budget of $233.8 million and approximately 302 employees. The Agency owns and manages 3,144 units of public housing and is one of the largest landlords in Sacramento. SHRA also administers approximately 11,000 rental assisted vouchers per month.
