REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY MOVES TO NEW DOWNTOWN HEADQUARTERS IN DECEMBER

Relocation will coincide with temporary closure in response to State budget impact

Sacramento, Calif. - Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency will relocate its administration offices to 801 12th Street on December 18, 2009. In conjunction with the move, the Agency will close from Friday, December 18 through Monday, January 4, due to the State budget impact, and will reopen on Tuesday, January 5 at the 12th Street location.

Several departments supported by approximately 130 employees operating in five buildings will be consolidated at the new location on the southeast corner of 12th and H Streets which is about five blocks east of SHRA's current site at 630 I Street.

Departments that will be transferred to the new office building include Executive, Finance, Housing and Community Development, Housing Authority Administration, Homeownership Services, Human Resources, Information Management and Technology Services, Legal, Real Estate and Construction Services and Procurement Services.

Public Housing operations (HCV-Housing Choice Voucher and Conventional Housing) will be open for business as usual.
