SACRAMENTO HOUSING AND REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY APPOINTS DAVID LEVIN AS GENERAL COUNSEL

Sacramento, CA | David Levin has been appointed as General Counsel for the Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Agency.

As General Counsel, Mr. Levin will be responsible for developing and overseeing internal and external legal services to the Agency in areas involving public law, community development, housing and related activities. He will also serve as legal counsel on matters that come before the Sacramento Housing and Redevelopment Commission.

Prior to his appointment as General Counsel, Mr. Levin served as Agency Counsel since 1998. In that capacity he has been responsible for advising Agency staff, the City and County Housing Authority, and several non-profit public benefit corporations administered by SHRA on housing and program activities, and numerous federal and local funding programs.

Mr. Levin was instrumental in providing legal representation for the Agency in negotiating and documenting significant real estate redevelopment projects in the Downtown, Old Sacramento, McClellan and Mather Air Force Bases, and the Del Paso Nuevo master planned community. Major accomplishments prior to the elimination of redevelopment include, among other projects, the Citizen Hotel and the 800 J Street Lofts in Downtown, the Orleans and the Ebner/Empire Hotel in Old Sacramento, and the Greater Sacramento Urban League Headquarters and Training Facility in Del Paso Heights. Other accomplishments involved development and financing of numerous single and multifamily housing projects.

Before coming to SHRA, Mr. Levin worked at a private law firm, real estate consulting firm, and a public policy research firm.
